Dear Lynn,

As long as I live I'll never forget all the wonderful and eventful times I've had with you. Ever since we've known each other you've been to my best & closest friend. It's been shared so many pleasant experiences this last year that I know neither one of us will ever forget. Down in Ventnor with Dick & John. Then down to Deep Creek for two wonderful weeks. We really had fun! Then school started & then choral became our main interest. Going to all the contests and trying to beat McKeessport. And other exciting experience we had together was getting season tickets to the Operas. Then hearing today that we both made Chapel Choir in our senior year. It's all too hard to believe. I hope we will remain as close friends as we have so far & keep this friendship as long — well — till the end. Everything seems to happen to us at the same time. Like we're both working this summer. Always stay as sweet and thoughtful as you are & I know you'll go places. Keep up the singing and maybe I'll be paying to hear you sing. And always remember

Dear Lynn,
 smile and your personality got absolutely nowhere, but seriously, it's been fun with you and helping lower your Home Ec. class grade.
 I hope we stay good friends throughout the coming year. Luck. for 1957

you're great!!!!

Don't ever forget the fun we've had in 9th grade play and the operetta. Remember too, the fun in each class. I am sure success will be yours. Lots of luck next year - Till then -

Thanks Lynn, for all that help

Dear Lynn,
It hardly seems that we're seniors. It seems like just a few months ago that we were at Perryville. It's been so wonderful knowing you Remember all the wonderful times we had together and the classes we have shared you're a wonderful person and I'm glad you're one of my best friends. Best of

As we look back upon our school years, we become aware that music has been an important influence in our lives. We have heard many songs come and go, but there is one that will remain dear for many years to come. Throughout the pages of this book run the strains of our Alma Mater, recalling vivid memories of our high school days.
These are happy, lighthearted days which we are told to "make the most of." We know that we will retain the experiences of these fleeting hours in our hearts, where in future years we may recall them as inspirations.

Even now, as we contemplate departure from our high school, we experience a strange, nostalgic sensation, one which is unfamiliar to us. We grow aware that West View, its traditions, its activities, and its music have become a part of us.

In addition to a sense of humility
by which we evaluate our careers in high school, we feel a deeply rooted, very proud urge. That urge compels us to proclaim the excellence of West View. In accepting credit for community success our students must salute the administration and the faculty, respectively the composers and conductors of the harmonious melody that we call West View High School.
Their guidance and counsel remain
the most valuable commodities which we as students may acquire.

Dear Lynn,
Never forget time we did in style. I never met more fun in your life. I wish and best of luck and happiness in the future. (Remember
when we sang Sella Vowel)
Best wishes
Love

ADMINISTRATORS

Although we do not come in contact each day with our Administrators, we have been conscious of their presence. It has given us encouragement to know that they have always stood nearby, ready to help us with any problems which arose, ready to encourage us in times of discouragement, devoting their efforts toward enabling us better to face the tasks confronting us, and preparing us to face the world after graduation from high school.

When we leave the protective influence of our Administrators, there will remain a bond between us. Their interest in our progress through life, their sharing of our triumphs and defeats will give each of us comfort and encouragement.

Because of the academic and spiritual support which our Administrators have unselfishly given us and will continue to give us after graduation, we sincerely thank them for helping to make each of our lives richer and more successful.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is one of the most important civic groups of the community. The members of this board were chosen by the citizens of West View and Ross Township because they believed them capable of handling school problems.

Few people realize how much time these men and women spend on school affairs. The monthly meeting in the high school library is only a small portion of the time spent in solving the problems of a rapidly progressing community.

They must, among other things, regulate school taxes and expenditures, hire all personnel, and secure maintenance for all the buildings of the North Hills Joint School System. Besides these usual problems, this year the board made further plans for building new elementary schools to relieve overcrowded conditions.

Although, at times, we fail to realize the time and effort which this organization puts forth in solving these problems, we, the students of West View High School, wish to express our appreciation for the many opportunities made possible for us by the Board of Education.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The purpose of a Student Council in any school is to democratically lead and serve the students in the best possible manner. Our Student Council this year was something to be proud of, for it accomplished all this and more. Under the leadership of the president, Jared Meyer, together with the Cabinet and homeroom representatives, Student Council worked hard to carry out the desires of the students. The best magazine campaign in West View's history was held and the rewards from it were innumerable. A juke box was added to the furnishings of the cafeteria for the enjoyment of all. The remainder of the money was put away with the promise of many a fine assembly to come next year.

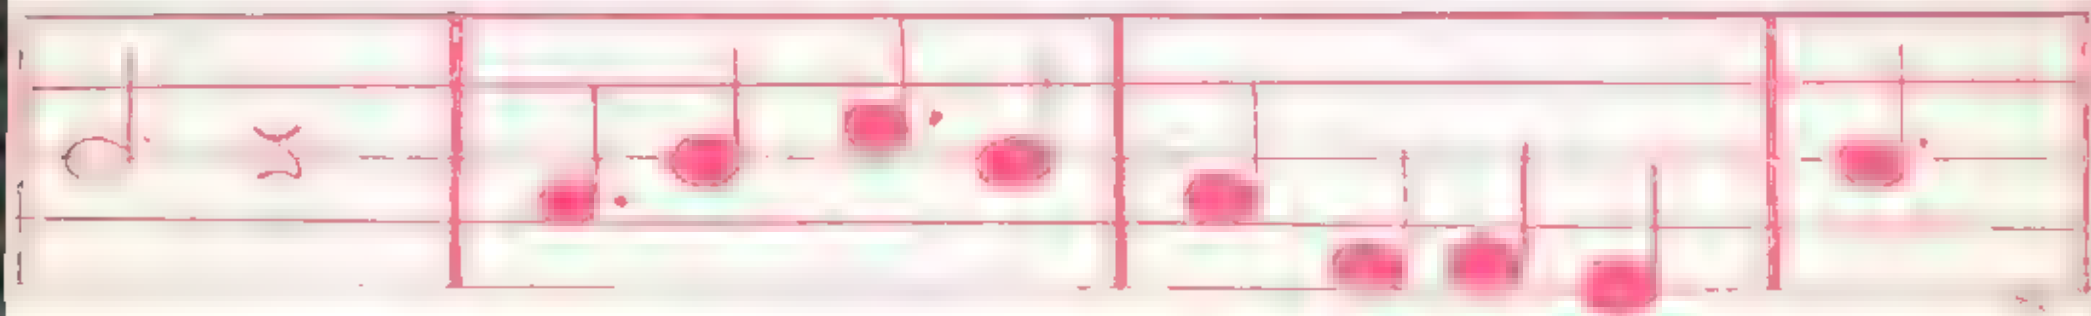

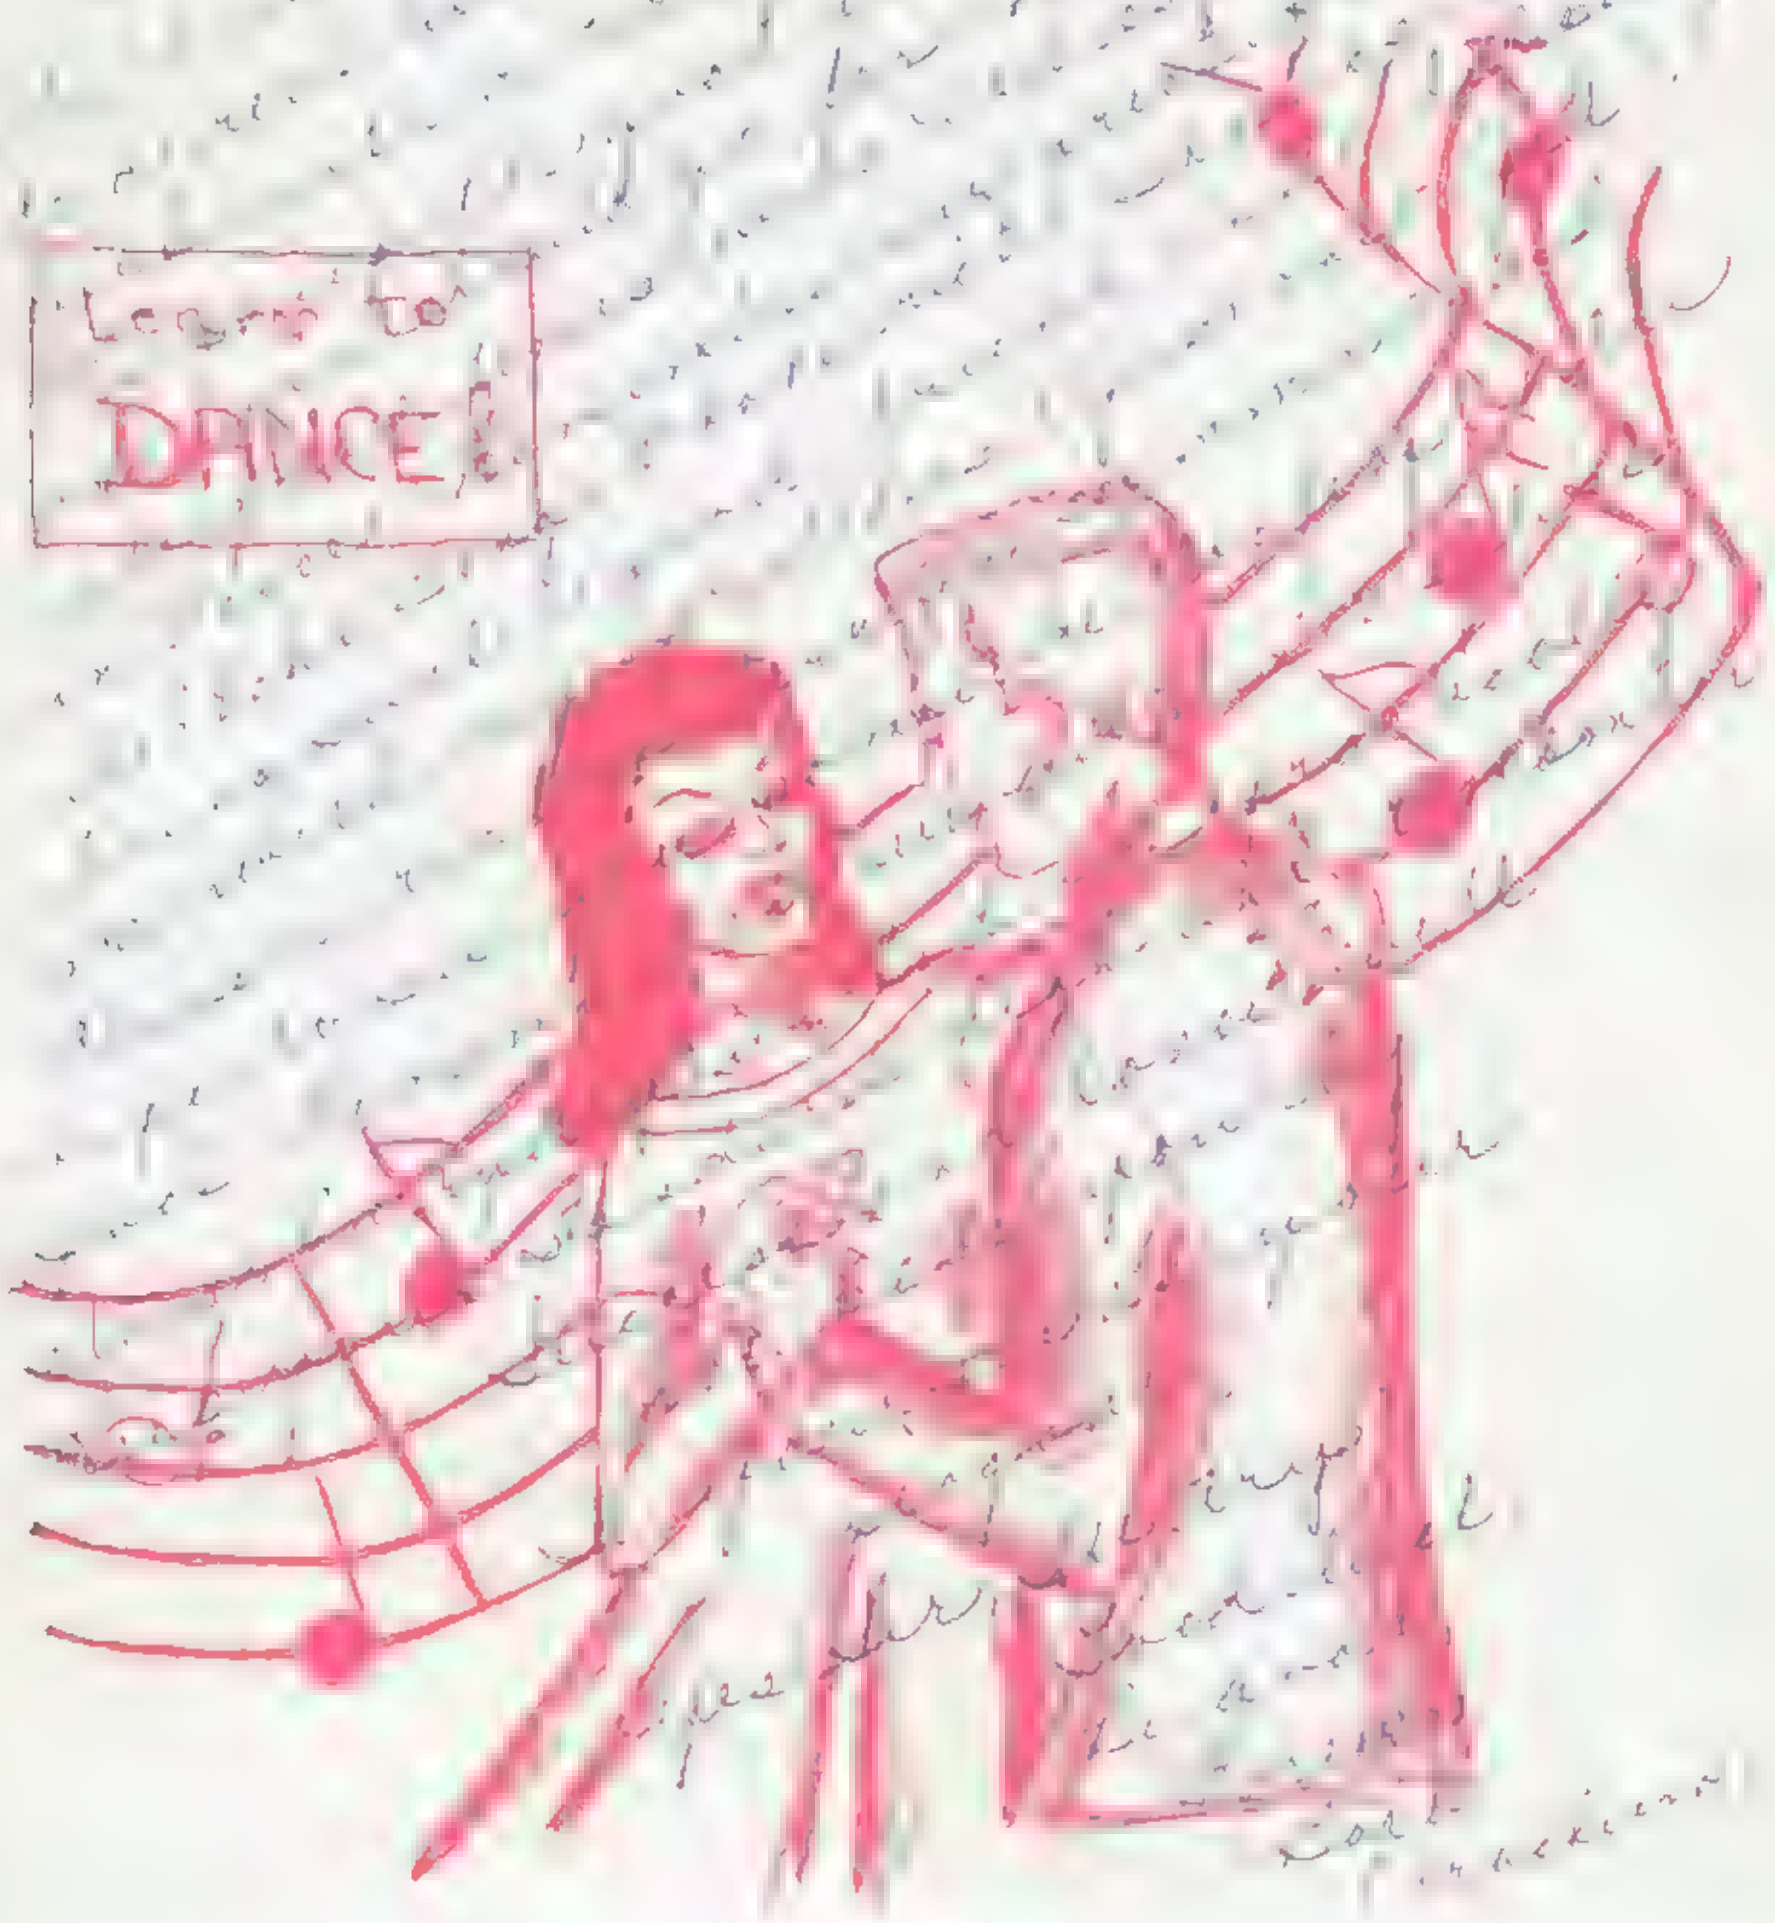

Student Council met Monday mornings first period, and conducted all its business meetings at that time. The nine Cabinet members met Tuesday mornings, and discussed any important matters that had not been covered the previous day.

Although everyone realizes what an outstanding job Student Council has done, few realize that it could not have been done without the help and advice of its sponsors, Mr. Metz and Miss Wadlinger. Mr. Luke and the faculty are also to be acknowledged for their co-operation with the plans and programs of Council. Without them Student Council would not have been able to function as smoothly nor achieve the high standards that it did this year.

Standing—Mr. Gay, M. Ihrig, R. McClymonds,
Miss Delp

To whom do we owe our thanks for such a successful senior year? Our hard-working Senior Executive Council, of course. Guided by our class sponsors, Miss Delp and Mr. Gay, the executive council carried out their duties efficiently. They collected dues, planned activities, supervised the ordering of graduation announcements and name cards, and made the necessary arrangements for the Senior Class Play, the Senior Dinner Dance, and Commencement.

Mark Ihrig, as president of the Senior Class, headed the executive council. The other capable officers were Jim Lloyd, vice-president; Nancy Bachman, recording secretary; Phyllis Gasull, corresponding secretary; and Rick McClymonds, treasurer.

Representing the senior homerooms were Ron Bees, Eileen Costolo, Mimi Goetz, Bob Hunt, Gene Mayfield, Sally Paschedag, Dave Smith, and Marilyn Wilson.

We congratulate our officers, sponsors, and council representatives for the fine job they have done, and thank them for making the senior events of 1956 such memorable ones.

WESTVIAN STAFF

The Westvian Staff began working very early in the year on one of the most important student activities of all—the making of the yearbook. The numerous jobs involved were securing patrons, planning layouts, taking the photographs, composing the writeups, and selling the books to our fellow students.

Finding patrons was the first project of the season. Everyone on the staff pounded the sidewalks, working toward the goal of making the 1956 Westvian the very best. Then came the photographs of the classes, the seniors, the different activities, sports groups, and the candid. Next came the writeups, which flowed from our pens, pencils, and typewriters.

While the literary and activities staffs were busily wearing down countless pencils, the art staff began wielding paint brushes to put the finishing touches on the Westvian. When this was accomplished, the material went to the printer, and we all breathed a sigh of relief. Then came the time to edit the yearbook, and everyone settled down to business again. Finally, our work was finished for another year. However, we were well rewarded by the annual picnic, held at North Park for the entire staff. It was the climax of a year of both hard work and fun, as the staff worked together as a team, to create this, the 1956 Westvian with the leadership provided by Mr. Herman and Mr. Puchta

WEST WIND STAFF

The West Wind, which is the school newspaper, is always expectantly awaited. It comes out nine times a year with seven copies bought with the activity card and two special "extras" with picture inserts. The newspaper has an editor-in-chief, an assistant editor who will be editor-in-chief next year, and nine editors under them including news, Lynne Smith; business, Carol Hunt; circulation, June Meckler; art, Ann Walczak; sports, Roger Dunsmore; photography, Ed Baugher; typing, Jane Bauerle; features, Janet Moore; and exchange editor, Nancy Dereich. The editor-in-chief this year was Pat Llewellyn, who gained her valuable experience as the editor of the Hamilton

Herald in her junior high school days. The assistant editor was Ethel Fritsch, who gained much knowledge under Pat. The reporters of the West Wind on the staff are composed of very efficient seniors, juniors, and sophomores. The editors and staff are under the capable leadership of Miss Delp. The West Wind prints articles about activities, dances, assemblies, sports, and anything else that may be of interest to the students such as fashions, jokes, humorous articles from other school papers, etc. The West Wind annually sponsors a few dances during the course of the year. If it weren't for the West Wind, no news would be known around West View!

LIBRARY CLUB

One of the most important of our many active organizations here at West View is the Library Club. Each year, at the beginning of the term, many girls join the Club. The officers for the year are then elected. The jobs this year were in the capable hands of president, Penny Weise.

We can all realize the wonderful work the girls do in the club when it rolls around to term paper time again. However, checking books in and out aren't the only things this group learns. Besides learning all the fundamental operations of a library, they take care of the beautiful decorations at Christmas. These Christmas decorations are one of the major activities of the Library Club. A huge pine tree is brought into the library and fully decorated. It certainly adds Yuletide cheer and good spirits to see the school decorated in this manner.

Another major event is the annual spring banquet. This always turns out to be a big success with each girl fully enjoying herself.

A lot of credit should be given to this organization of really hard-working girls and to their sponsor, Miss Rea. For without such a function as the Library Club, West View students would spend most of their school time trying to figure out what the countless shelves of our library contain.

SPEECH CLUB

The Speech Club is one of West View's oldest and finest organizations. Membership was open to anyone having a sincere interest in public speaking. The students participated in several fields of speaking—debate, extemporaneous, oratory, or original declamation.

The club met with Mr. Metz, the club's sponsor, every Monday evening and everyone labored to achieve perfection in his particular field of speech. Practice makes perfection, and perfection is essential for speech making.

The club elected its officers early in the school year and advanced under their outstanding leadership. The members chose Jim Lloyd as president, Bill Schick as vice-president, Carl Bundy as secretary, and Mike Shawe as treasurer.

The club participated actively in many speech contests and student congresses, represented by individuals and debate teams. The Varsity Debate team—Jared Meyer, Jim Lloyd, Gene Mayfield, and Bill Schick, has an excellent record.

It was possible to obtain four degrees in speech work, which are awarded to Speech Club members who have shown a special interest. Membership in the National Forensic League is attainable when a total of twenty points is earned. The degree of merit is awarded when fifty points is earned. One hundred points rates a degree of honor, and the highest award, the degree of distinction, is given for earning two hundred points.

West View students can be proud of the outstanding work achieved by the officers, sponsor, and members of the 1956 Speech Club. They have done much to enrich West View's reputation and will continue to do so in the future.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, under the experienced and capable sponsorship of Miss Vance, is composed of students from the Latin II classes.

At the beginning of the year, officers are elected. The officers consist of two Consuls, Pontifex Maximus, Scriba, and Quaestor. The meetings are called to order by the Consuls and the minutes are read by the Scriba, or secretary. The duty of the Pontifex Maximus is to take charge of devotions, which are read in Latin. Any money taken in by the club is given to the Quaestor, or treasurer.

Nine committees, consisting of a representative from each of the Latin classes, make up the rest of the club. These include a card, music, radio, program, art, bulletin board, social, publicity, and membership committee. Each committee has certain duties, which together make the club a success.

Members may purchase pins which signify them as belonging to the state and national Junior Classical League.

The Latin Club had quite a few activities planned for the year. A Skating Party was held in November along with an interesting and memorable trip to the Museum and Cathedral of Learning. The Roman Banquet and Latin Week at the Planetarium also added to the festive times the students enjoyed. Also, a reception was held for Jack Hannuksela, the foreign exchange student, Nancy Dereich, who visited Germany this summer, and Bill Schick, who visited Norway.

Miss Vance deserves many thanks for the wonderful job she did this year, and for sharing her knowledge in making the Latin Club a success.

Y-TEEN

Remember

Y-Teen

The Y-Teen is a service organization composed of a group of girls whose purpose is to better the school and themselves. Under the capable guidance and leadership of Mrs. Craig, sponsor, and Marilyn Gottschalk, president, a very interesting program was carried out for the 1955-56 school year.

Selling refreshments at the football games, sponsoring dances, visiting hospitals and providing gifts for a needy family kept the club busy during the year. But along with work, there were also good times. These were had by all at the meetings held every other Wednesday night with the "off Wednesday" being sports night. Basketball, volleyball, ping pong, and games were offered on sports night.

The committees which made Y-Teen a huge success were social, dramatics, program, sports, choral, service, and art. Social and program planned our dances and programs for the year. Plays were enjoyed at our meetings because of the performance of our dramatics committee. Choral and the service committee helped us in the music and selling field. The art committee kept us posted just when, where and what was planned for the next meeting. With plenty to do, everyone was kept quite busy.

During the school year many socials were held with the Hi-Y. Now it has also become a Y-Teen annual event to have a semi-formal dance in November. These socials not only provide enjoyment but create a stronger friendship with Hi-Y.

This active, successful year came to a close with the serving of the May Day Breakfast to the Senior girls.

HI-Y

The purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character. The entire program is built around this purpose.

Hi-Y meets every week on Wednesday night. The program consists of outstanding speakers, interesting movies, and discussion groups. Some of the topics for these programs are driving safely, juvenile delinquency, sports, boy-girl relations, and sportsmanship. At the meetings, the members also plan and discuss their numerous social events which are always enjoyed by all who attend.

Interest groups are held on alternate weeks. They include such subjects as hunting and fishing, photography, and an automobile section sponsored by the Pennsylvania State Police.

An athletic program is set up every year which enables all boys who desire to do so to participate in this recreation.

Conducting morning devotions, giving aid to needy families, and arranging the Senior Breakfast for boys are a few of the service projects performed by Hi-Y.

The Hi-Y cabinet, which meets every Tuesday night, is composed of its officers and fifteen members. Each cabinet member is responsible for some phase of the organization. Mr. Craig and Mr. Gay were the very capable sponsors. The officers were as follows: president, Phil Williams; vice-president, Jared Meyer; secretary, Jerry Miller; treasurer, Karl Schweitzer and chaplain, Tony Richardson.

Along with the sponsors and the cabinet, all the members helped to make this year one to be remembered for its achievements.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Any athletic boy here at West View may try out for a various number of sports, but all an athletic-minded girl has to do is join the Girls' Athletic Association, or G.A.A., as it is popularly known.

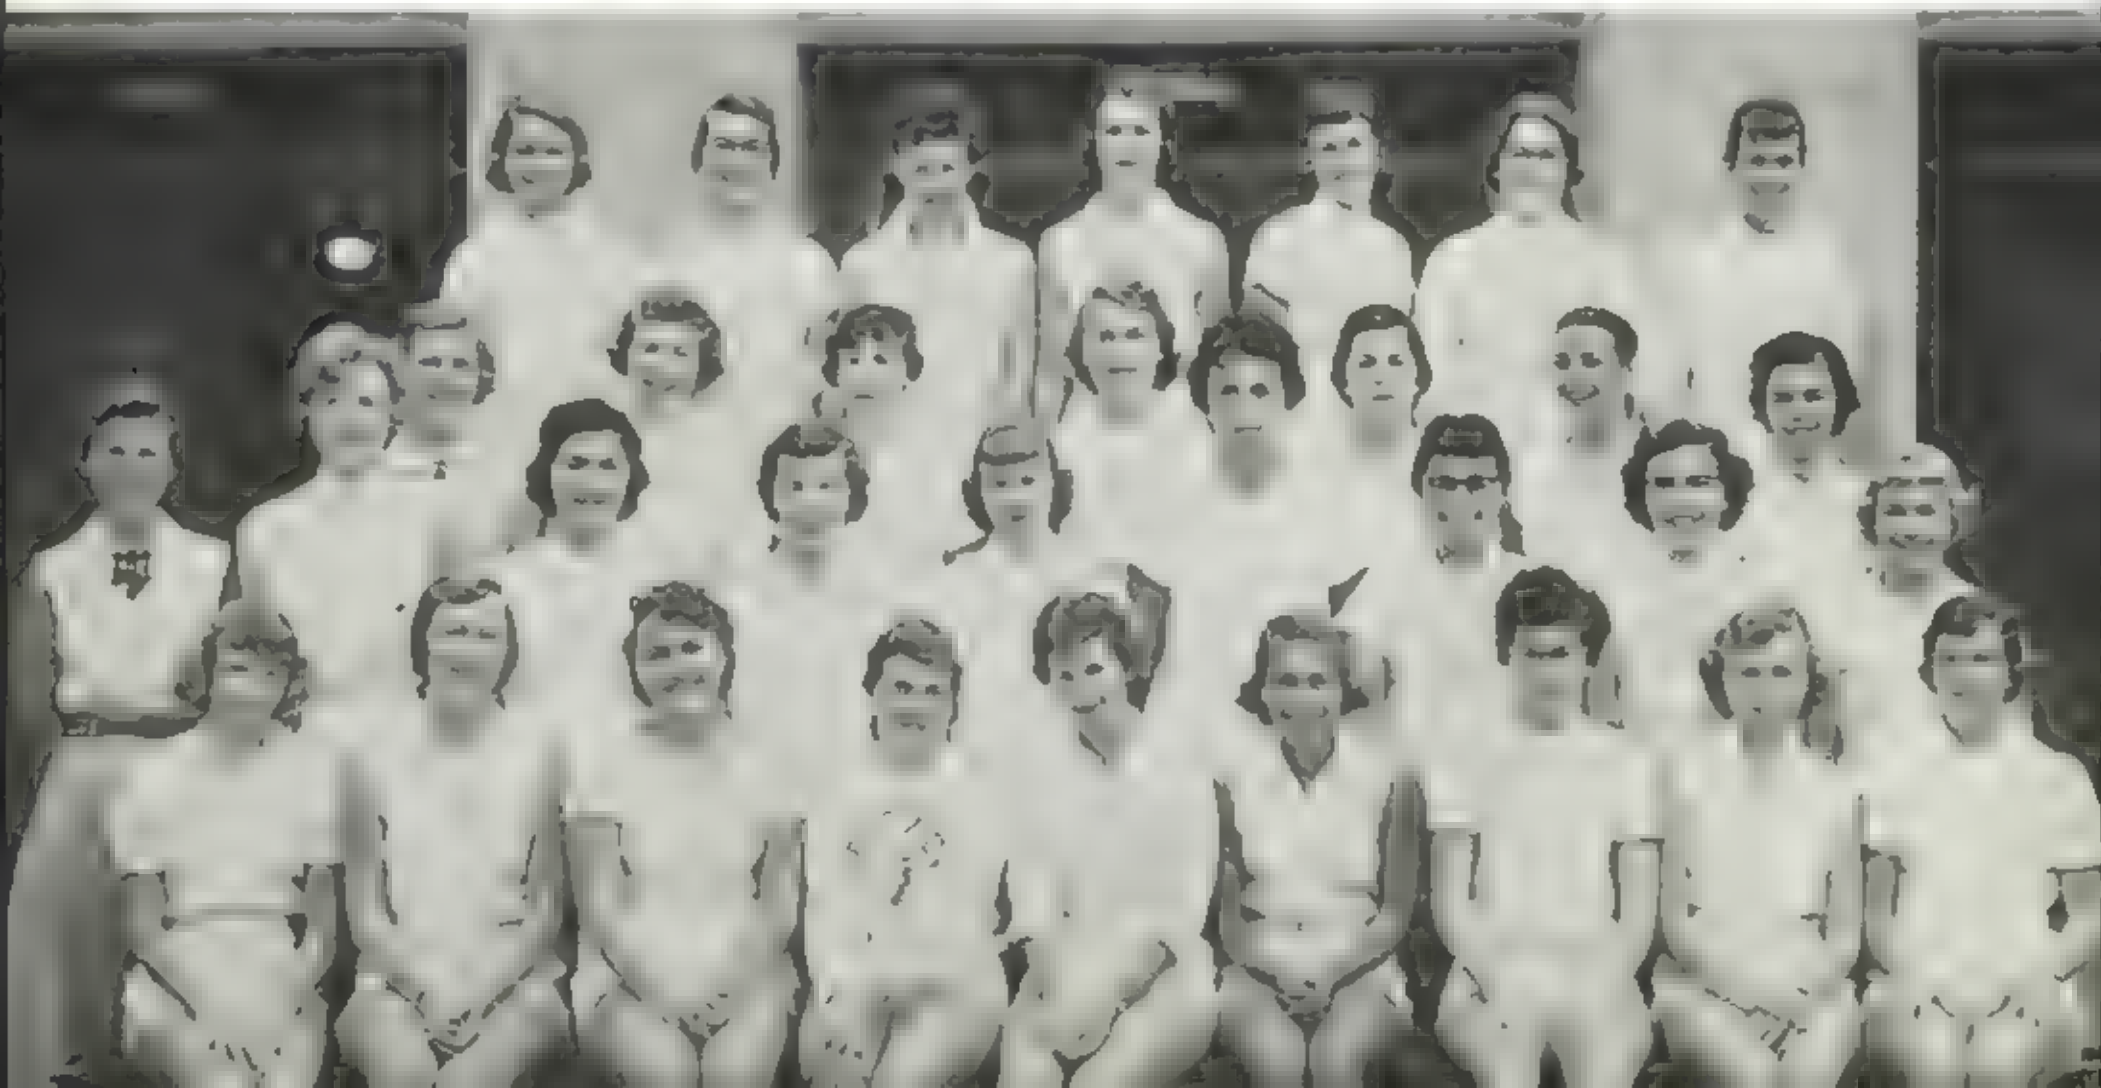

These girls meet after school usually once or twice a week depending on when the gym floor is available. They participate in the kind of sports they like best—mostly basketball, volleyball, and softball.

Points are accumulated individually by each member. One point is given every time a girl attends G.A.A., and one-half point whenever she is on the winning side. The girl who has the most points is automatically president. This year's president is Carol Hunt. Two kinds of letters can be earned with different amounts of points—the small G.A.A. letter achieved when forty points have been accumulated and the chenille varsity letter, one of the chief goals of each member. It usually takes three years of regular attendance and hard play to receive this letter.

Miss Aiken, the sponsor, leads the girls in the various sports, and helps them work together to learn team work, fair play, good sportsmanship, and fellowship. This group of girls has had a lot of fun and success in the past, and we hope they will continue to have the same in the future.

GIRLS' BOWLING CLUB

West View offers many clubs in which girls may participate. One of the most interesting and entertaining is the Bowling Club. This year the club had sixty members, some of who were experts at the game and some who were just beginners. Besides the athletic activity the club offers, it also develops good sportsmanship and team spirit in these girls. Every other Thursday at the Bellevue Bowling Alleys, the girls display their ability to play. The members were divided into ten teams with six on a team. Each team had a captain who was usually appointed for her outstanding ability to bowl.

Earlier this year a meeting was called to elect the club's officers. June Meckler, elected president, was in charge of all the activities of the club. She was assisted by Mary Lou Faller, vice-president. Arlene Gasull, as secretary, had the difficult task of averaging the scores of the teams. Phyllis Gasull, elected treasurer, had the job of collecting dues. This year, the girls were under the able leadership of Mrs. Ramming, the club's sponsor.

The climax of the year's activity came with a banquet which was held in the spring. At that time the girls were rewarded for their accomplishment by prizes given for perfect attendance, high scores, and high averages. The girls of this year's Bowling Club wish all the success to the club next year and the years to follow.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

The official title given to this up-and-coming organization is the "Achiever's Association of Junior Achievement." The West View High School Chapter of Junior Achievement has one main purpose, and that is to interest fellow students in the program so that they might share in the fun and experiences that are had by all members. Each member receives an opportunity to work for a large firm, and also gain experience at being a partner in a real business.

Mr. Radhe, executive director of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the National Junior Achievement, was the first to recruit students for the club at West View. In his visits to our school he has been very helpful in assisting with the different companies.

At the beginning of the year the club got together and elected its officers. They were president Art Schneider, vice-president Pat Llewellyn, and secretary Jeannette Bloom. This year the club has been under the competent guidance of its sponsor, Mrs. Gibson.

The entire Junior Achievement club meets one night a week and forms into various committees which also have weekly meetings. The committees are: program, social, welcoming, ways and means, and service. All students from grades nine through twelve are urged to join the organization.

Just recently the achiever's have submitted their Constitution to Student Council for recognition as a club. They are hoping that the motion will be passed because they feel that this club is one of the finest extra-curricular activities in which a high school student can participate.

In the spring the members are going to have a dinner and a dance at which time they will display the products the individual companies have produced. The Junior Achievers are planning a major campaign for members next fall and they have high expectations for the future years of the club.

SCIENCE ACHIEVEMENT ORGANIZATION

The Science Achievement Organization, or S.A.O., which the members and other people who are acquainted with this club call it, is an organization composed of students interested in science who desire to obtain a firmer background in it than they can receive during school time. The members construct projects for various science fairs. At the meetings, usually held weekly, the students help each other with their projects and try to find ways of bettering them. Mrs. Gibson, the sponsor, through her experience, directs and helps them with their projects when necessary. S.A.O. cooperates with the junior high school science classes in organizing science fairs. A science fair was presented in both the junior and senior high schools through the work of the S.A.O. It also awarded merits to the best projects.

The ultimate aim of each member is to receive a scholarship by building a project which is worthy of one. Therefore, a lot of time, effort, and preparation go into each one. The S.A.O. is a newly organized club and is arousing interest in the students at West View and prospective members at the junior high. Each boy and girl receives valuable instruction on how to work for themselves and how to judge their own and other students' work from the knowledge and experience they get in science class and in S.A.O.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To be considered for the highest honor that West View High School bestows upon its students, one has to be in the upper fourth of his class. After the list of eligible students has been compiled by the sponsor, Miss McGinnis, the faculty votes upon and elects two per cent of the junior class, and thirteen per cent of the senior class to receive this honorable award.

In the latter part of February, a most impressive "tapping ceremony" was conducted in which the newly elected members were greeted by Jared Meyer, Anne Heister, William Schick, Marilyn Gottschalk, and Pat Kern, last year's junior members.

In the spring, the formal induction ceremony was held in which the new members lit their candles, repeated the oath, and were formally received into National Honor Society.

The society is a national organization, and carries on no other activities other than those already mentioned.

The members of National Honor Society have shown outstanding character, service, leadership, and scholarship, and are to be commended for receiving such an outstanding award.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

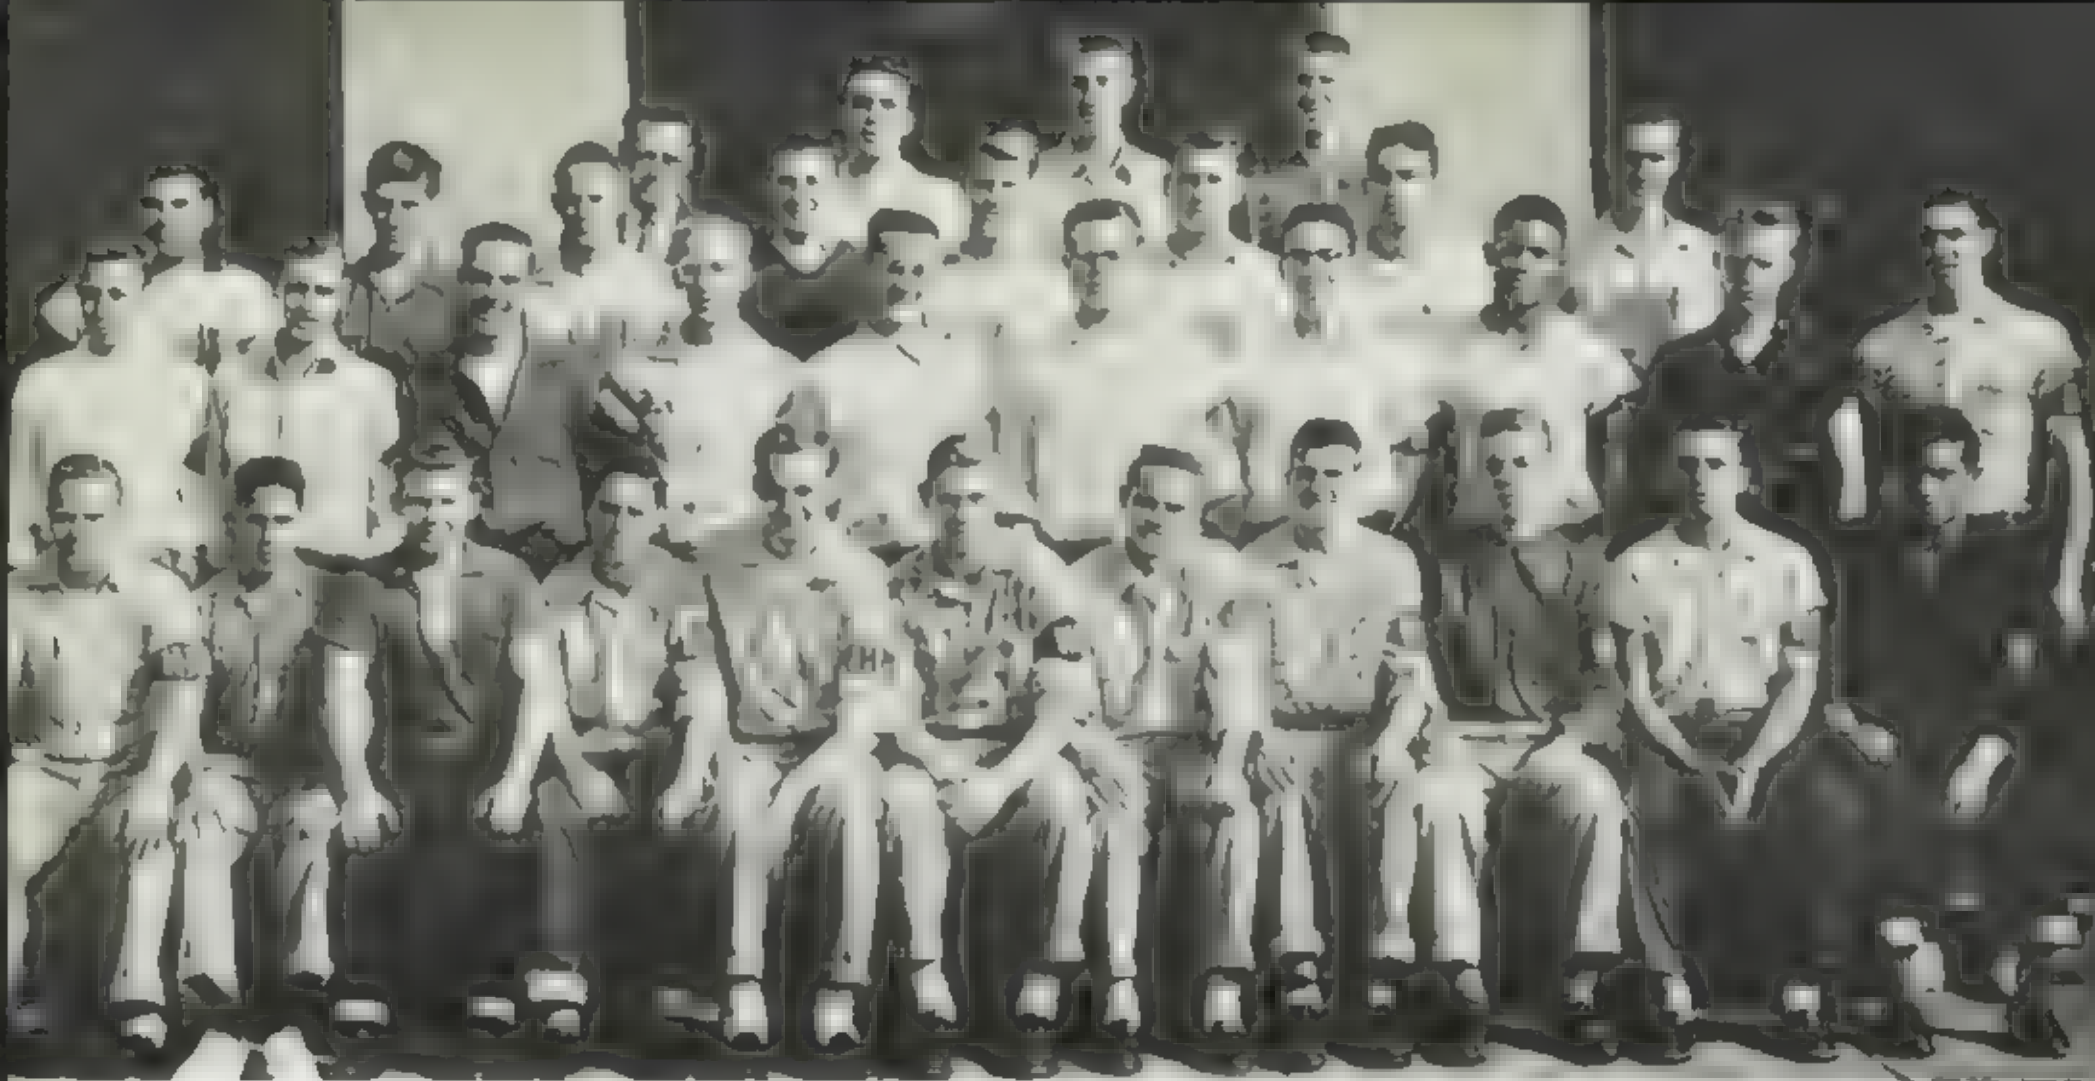

Future Homemakers of America, or F.H.A., as it is more commonly called, works toward the goal of a better and happier home life. This goal was obtained through the leadership of their capable sponsor, Miss McCabe, and the cabinet. The cabinet consisted of Louise Stucka, president; June Meckler, vice-president; Nancy Lobaugh, secretary; Adela Marche, treasurer; Bernie Bulik, degree chairman; and Yvonne Flipovitz, social and refreshment chairman. But we cannot forget that without the co-operation and enthusiasm shown by all the girls, this year's F.H.A. would never have been such a success.

Among the many projects of F.H.A. were field trips to local, state, and national conventions, a skating party in October, and a Christmas party for orphans. Other activities included a Mother and Daughter Banquet and a Shuffle Shop dance sponsored by F.H.A. These accomplishments worked toward fulfilling their motto, "Toward New Horizons."

The club is made up of senior high girls. Its meetings were held this year once a month, on a Monday, in the Sewing Room of the high school. At these meetings the girls planned and discussed their many projects.

After such a successful year, the club's only wish could be the continuance of such success in years to come.

HALL PATROL

No organization can operate successfully and efficiently without laws or rules. And, when rules are made, there is a need for a group to enforce them.

At West View High School, this need is satisfied by our hall patrol. The hall patrol is made up of thirty-three boys who can be trusted to carry out their duties diligently. The Secretary of Traffic this year was Jim Bittel, and his assistant was Ralph Wagner. The hall patrol is advised by Mr. Craig, their able sponsor.

The hall patrol boys are stationed at regular intervals along all halls. Many jobs confront the members of this organization. They help to direct traffic and, on the first day of school, are a tremendous help to new students, and also to a few forgetful old ones. They keep us in order when we are entering the auditorium, and prevent students from vaulting over the seats and hanging from the balcony railing. Some of the bravest members volunteer for lunchroom duty and hold off the onslaught from 12:00 to 1:00, as the ravenous students rush for the lunch line. In the future, hall patrol hopes to have the boys direct the students during all fire drills.

Jim Bittel says, "They're doing a good job." But only the students can really appreciate what a wonderful job they have done. We owe a lot to our fine hall patrol and hope they will always do as well as they have this year.

STAGE CREW

Behind the scenes at all performances in our high school you are sure to see twelve boys working hard to set up the stage. This is our stage crew under the capable direction of Rod Kotchin, vice-president of Student Council. Mr. Metz, who teaches them their respective jobs, is the sponsor of the group.

It is the responsibility of these boys to set up the stage for every assembly put on during school. Afterwards they must always see that everything is cleaned up and put in order. Besides the school assemblies, the stage crew is often asked to work for the P.T.A. and P.M.A. at night.

Some of the hardest jobs that go along with being a member of this crew are the Junior and Senior plays, the operetta, and the Lion's Club show. These presentations require special knowledge of the lights, curtains, and properties to help make the performances a big success.

The boys on this stage crew were chosen for their willingness to work for the benefit of the school. They have shown by their ambition and ability that they can do a job well. Each of them deserves many thanks from the whole student body.

PEP CLUB

This year we believe that West View High School attained a new high in school spirit. Much of the credit was due to our hard working Pep Club.

Few realize the numerous tasks of this club, its officers and members. The uniquely decorated auditorium for pep assemblies, the victory dances after the games, and the sparkling and clever posters throughout the halls were merely taken for granted. Our Pep Club was a driving force in the High School which built spirit for our winning teams and kept it at the same level when we lost.

Much of the credit for all this splendid work was due to the club's capable president, Phyllis Gasull. It was through her untiring efforts that we obtained our goal. She was most ably assisted by Carol Hunt, vice-president; Pam Mugnani, secretary; and Myrna Derr, treasurer. Mr. Caruso, the club's sponsor, contributed greatly in making Pep Club the best ever.

We, at West View, have a right to be proud of our teams and our fine school spirit. Likewise, we have an equal right to be proud of our Pep Club for the vital part they played in our school life this year.

It is our hope that the record of the 1956 Pep Club will be carried on in future years and perhaps even bettered, if this is possible.

CHEERLEADERS

Spirit, Style, and Skill! These are three attributes possessed by our peppy varsity cheerleaders! Take Lynne Smith, their captain, for instance. Being a cheerleader for six years gave her a great deal of experience to lead the squad this year. Kay Nelson, a cheerleader since eighth grade, and Anne Heister, Nancy Hied, Marilyn Wilson and Pat Kern, cheerleaders since their freshman year, led West View in cheering on its players and rousing its school spirit.

Attractive in their new red jumpers and white blouses, they cheered for all the football games and Friday night basketball games. The pep assemblies they headed this year were not only clever but made us really want to go out and cheer our boys on to victory.

The Varsity Cadettes, consisting of six junior girls, did their part by cheering during half time at the football games and at all Tuesday night basketball games while the J.V. squad cheered at all the Junior Varsity games.

Without Mr. Caruso's guidance and the cheerleaders long hours of practice, the squads would not have been as successful as they were this year. They practiced hard throughout the summer and several times a week during the school year. They also improved many of our older cheers.

Thanks, cheerleaders, for a job well done!

Lively marches and stirring drum cadences resound throughout the football stadium as the West View High School Varsity Marching Band performs its initial duty of the year. Hard practice went into the ten minute half-time routines and two band festivals. The highlight of the training season, Music Camp, a week of concentrated drilling in August, was preluded by daily summer rehearsals. Leading the band toward perfection in precision marching and dance steps are the head and assistant drum majors, Dwight Morrison and John Beebe, and majorette captain, Barbara Fairley.

An efficient cabinet and executive council planned the various social activities and maintained discipline. The officers were as follows: president Gene Mayfield; vice-president Bill Schick; secretary Marilyn Gottschalk; and treasurer Virginia Campbell.

The great success that the band has achieved this year is largely due to their industrious director, Mr. Caruso, whose knowledge of music and marching formations is essential for formulating interesting routines. We are proud of the excellent standards which have brought our band greater fame this year.

CHORUS

ACCOMPANISTS

Every Friday morning first period, harmonious singing can be heard throughout the corridors of West View High School. For at that time, the members of the chorus are having their weekly practice. Besides this Friday morning rehearsal, each member attends a daily voice class where the music is learned well enough to be practiced by the entire chorus on Friday.

In the spring of 1955, tryouts were held for the 1955-56 chorus. These individual tryouts were based on tone, quality, and the ability to sight-read. Those who met the qualifications became members of the Chorus. A chapel choir was then organized from the top-ranking chorus members. At every assembly, this choir sang a hymn and completed the devotions with the "Lord's Prayer."

Two fine groups, the mixed ensemble and girls' ensemble, represented West View many times throughout the year.

Under the excellent direction of Miss Conner, the choral music department of West View High School has had a very successful year. Hats off to Miss Conner and congratulations to the chorus.

ORCHESTRA

Patient work in the grade schools and long hours of practice at Camp Kan-O-Kwee gave us this fine orchestra. Every third period one could hear strains of music permeating the vicinity of Room 102. Here you found fifty musicians practicing "The Great Gate" by Moussorgsky under the capable direction of Mr. Caruso.

Not only was skill and ability gained, but many enjoyable times were had at picnics and parties planned by the executive council. The executive council consisted of four officers elected by the members of the orchestra. Some of their work this year was planning the exchange assembly with Avonworth and a field trip to Pittsburgh to hear a symphony concert.

A hard-working member, but one who was never seen on the stage, was the librarian. Seeing that all musicians had their music kept her busy during the year. This job was executed by Penny Weise.

The orchestra performed at many events this year, a few of which were the Junior and Senior Class plays. The girls wearing pastel evening gowns and the boys in dark suits gave performances of which we can be proud. They climaxed the year with the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" at the Syria Mosque for the Commencement Program.

SHUFFLE SHOP COMMITTEE

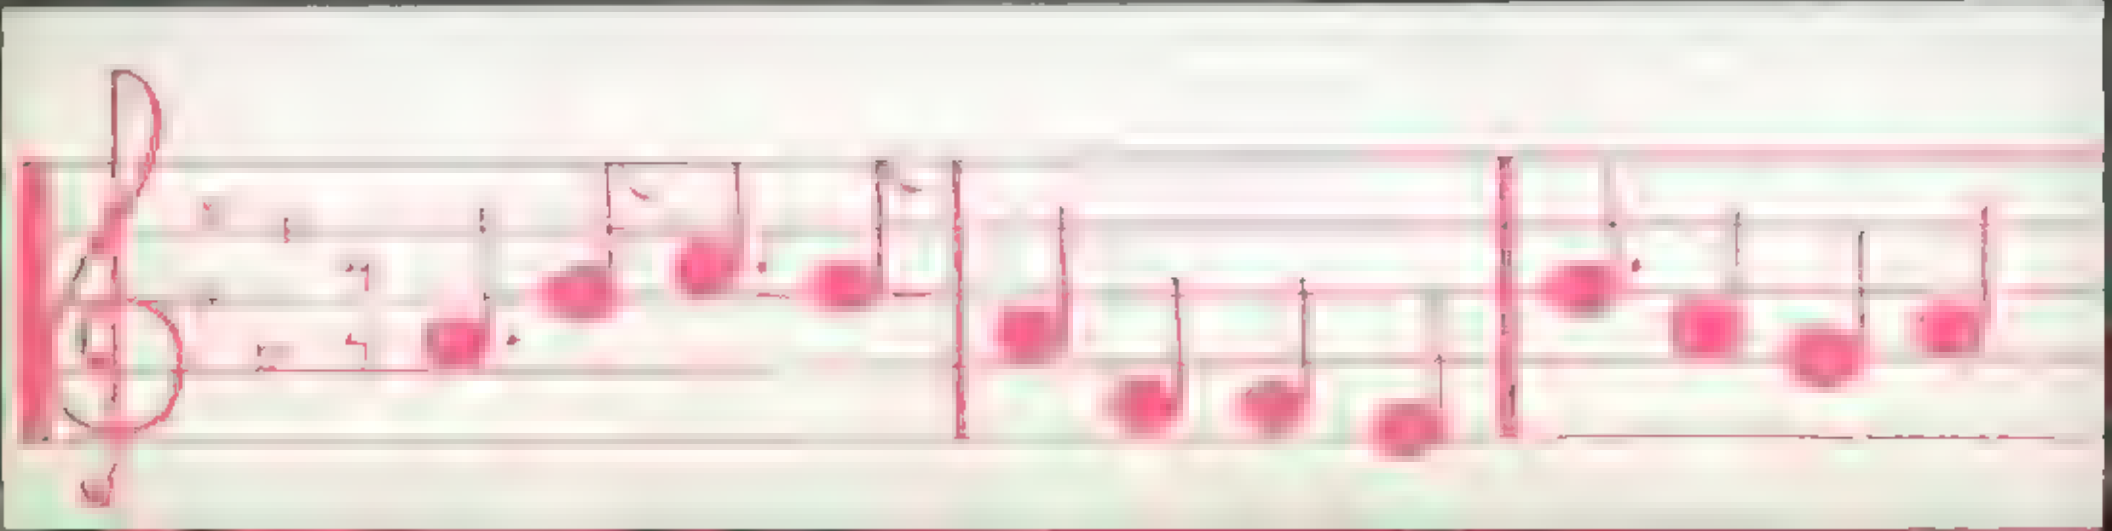

The Shuffle Shop Committee was the main-spring behind many a special Saturday night during the year. It was this hard-working group that decorated and helped plan the weekly dances that were not scheduled by clubs. Under its energetic and zealous secretary of Shuffle Shop, Barbara Jones, the committee spent many a Saturday afternoon hanging crepe paper, setting up band risers and cutting and pasting scenery. Barbara certainly proved the saying, "A woman's work is never done," for she was constantly thinking up new ideas for providing the students with dances they would enjoy. Since she is one of the few girls to ever take over the position, she is to be congratulated on doing such a commendable job.

Many successful dances were held throughout the year. The highlights of the season were the Christmas Dance, with Barry Kaye, the "King and Queen of Shuffle Shop" dance, and "Memories Are Made of This," which was a night of reminiscing for the seniors. Other dances during the year were the Kick-Off Dance, the Juke-box Jump, the Halloween Hoedown, and the other disk jockey dance which featured Jay Michael.

The Committee was composed of about forty-five members of the Junior and Senior classes. They were chosen at the beginning of the year by the secretary of Shuffle Shop, and are to be congratulated in making this year one of Shuffle Shop's finest.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

With only one year's previous experience in W.P.I.A. class AA competition, West View's football stars made quite a name for themselves this year by putting in a strong bid for the section championship. Coaches Mario Martorelli and Guy Guadagnino and their boys are to be commended for a fine record of seven wins and three losses, against one of the hardest schedules West View has played in recent years.

The season got under way in a decisive style with a 27-6 victory over Penn. The Indians then began to pick up speed as they rolled over Shaler, Oliver, and Stowe in order. But the boys really showed their stuff by defeating their second AA opponent, Monongahela, by a score of 27-7. At this point, it was decided to schedule a fifth sectional opponent, in order to put the team in the running for the section AA crown. The next week, however, West View met its first loss in the form of a literal upset in the mud at McKees Rocks by a score of 7-6. Undaunted by this extra-sectional defeat, the boys continued their championship drive by a 26-13 romp over Baldwin. Although they lost another non-league game, this one to Bethel, the Indians were "up" for the decisive game with Mount Lebanon. The winner was virtually assured a spot in the championship play-off game. West View scored first, but could not keep the lead. The Blue Devils, who later lost the championship game by one point, won this one, 31-13. In the final game, a 32-13 triumph over North Braddock Scott provided a fitting climax to an excellent season.

In the starting lineup, the right end position was held down by Tom Durnell, who kicked off and also added the all important point after touchdown. On the opposite end of the line was John Leech. Acting as able replacements for these two boys were Jim Bittel, Howard Koness, and Jack Mentzer. Gus Nauman, as a three-year varsity man, was captain of the team and played right guard. Occupying the other guard position was Lou Stephany. In the tackle spots were Dick Bechtold and Mike Zeno. Mike shifted to fullback whenever we needed a few yards for a first down or a touchdown. Completing a powerful forward wall was Arnold Washington at center. Ready to step into the line when needed were Frank LaValle and Bob Von Moss, who moved into the backfield and punted us out of danger when needed. In the backfield, our first string quarterbacks were Mark Ihrig and Dick Weinzetl, who took over when Mark was injured. Dick Rocks and Ed Abel, a junior, were very capable half-backs, and hard-running Ron Cook played full-back. Also at backfield posts were Bob Hunt, Phil Weber, and Howard Pollard. Not to be forgotten are the team's unsung heroes, the senior managers, Phil Williams and Ed Baugher.

Plunge right through that line.

All the way down the field!

This year's football team will go into the annals as one which really gave West View much to be proud of.

What play is this, fellas?

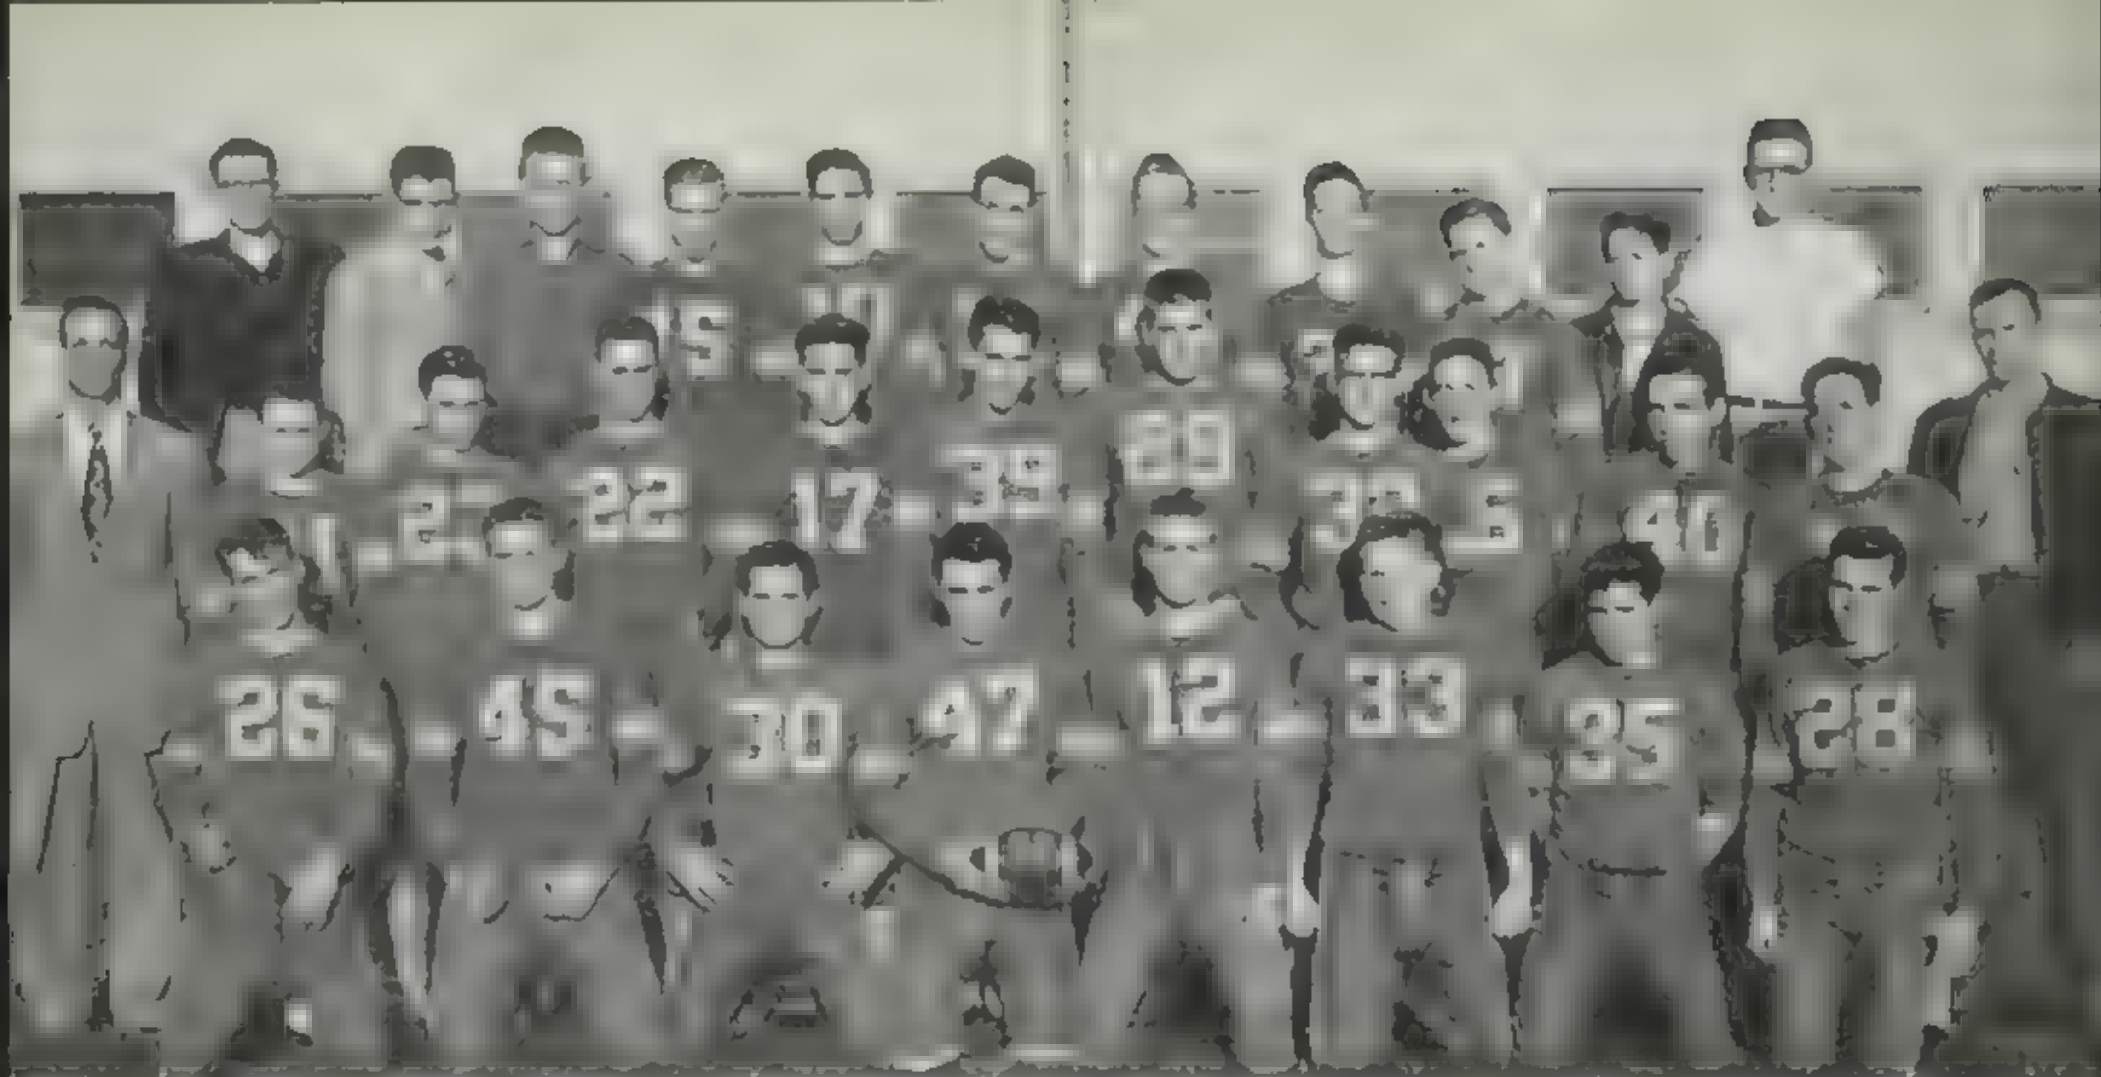

Let's go Leech, we want a touchdown

West View High can be very proud of its high-spirited, hard-playing Junior Varsity football team of 1955. Combining the able coaching of Mr. Grant Hare and Mr. James Harper, the dependable captaining of David Alig and Larry Klink, and hard work and cooperation on the part of all the players, the team was able to turn in an excellent record of four victories and two defeats. As usual, the team was made up of members of the sophomore class, although this year a few promising freshmen did manage to play.

We should all be very pleased that the junior Indians compiled a winning record. However, one thing should not be overlooked—success in junior varsity football is not necessarily counted in wins and losses. Its true purpose, besides teaching the spirit of competition, is teaching good clean football and educating the boys in the principles of fair play and the ideals of sportsmanship.

Congratulations are due to the coaches, players and all others connected with this year's team. We hope that these boys through the experience gained in J.V. participation and through hard work, will be able to lead our future varsities on to winning seasons.

VARSIITY BASKETBALL

The 1955-56 Basketball season provided more than its share of thrills to West View High School. Coach Martorelli's boys ended with a good record of 14 wins and 8 defeats. After a slow start of 2 losses, the team hit the winning stride with victories over Bellevue and Har-Brock. The Indians began the league race in good form by beating Moon 57-48. After defeating McKees Rocks and Coraopolis, the Indians proved their worth by beating their old rival, Stowe, in a thrilling game by a score of 62-59. But West View was finally edged from the top ranks near the close of the season. The outstanding performance by the team was a 97-67 scalping of West Allegheny, in which they set a new West View High School scoring record.

The starting quintet of this year's team included two seniors and three juniors. Dick Weinzel, only letterman to return from last year, was captain and playmaker. Dick ended the season with a total of 279 points. Mark Ihrig, the other senior member of the first five, collected an even 200 markers. The three juniors were center Dave Corley, forward Herb Wright, and guard Ed Abel. These boys scored 309, 289, and 178 points, respectively. Able senior replacements were 6'4" Ed Graf, Ray Kunsman, and Jack Mentzer.

This team will go down in West View history as one of the best. It certainly was without equal in spirit, drive, and determination.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The junior varsity basketball team, coached by Grant Hare, compiled a very good record this year, winning thirteen out of their twenty-two games. Almost all of the boys were on the team at Hamilton, and so were well experienced in the workings of a good team. They always won well, but they really showed their true sportsmanship in their losses, such as the games with Stowe, Coraopolis, and McKees Rocks, when they lost by only one point!

Nine of the boys on this year's team earned their letter. They are Lloyd Briscoe, Charles Kovach, Victor Moody, Dave Alig, Dave Ehrenfeld, Mike Duesing, Leonard Thomas, Glenn Abel, and Bill Hadfield, the manager. The two top scorers for the year were Lloyd Briscoe and Charles (Chummy) Kovach with 212 and 188 points respectively. Charles Kovach made 65 per cent of his shots for the year, which is the best record since the 1953-54 basketball season. Victor Moody, Dave Alig, and Dave Ehrenfeld follow close behind these two with 152, 144 and 138 points respectively. By far, this goes to show what can be accomplished when a team really works together.

Congratulations to these sophomores of today, and may they go on to win a varsity championship for our Alma Mater.

BASEBALL - 1955

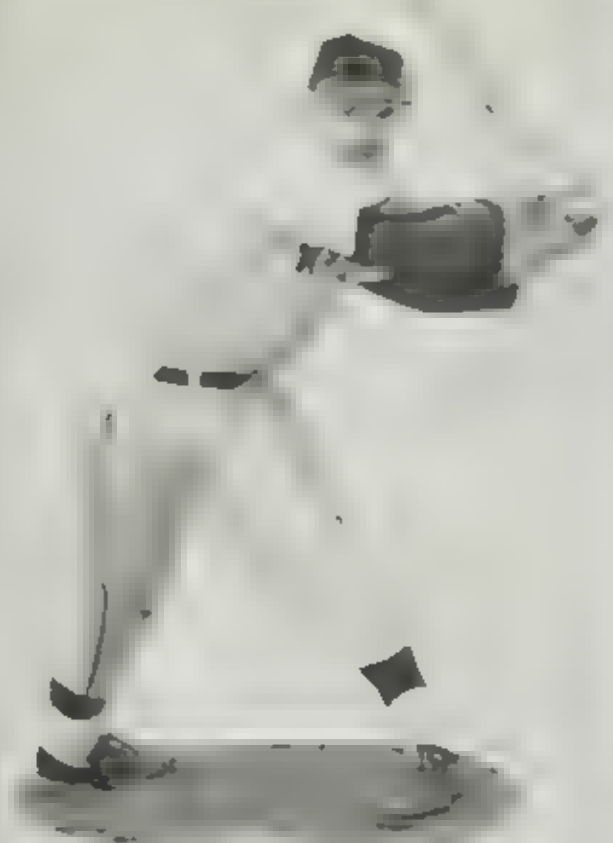

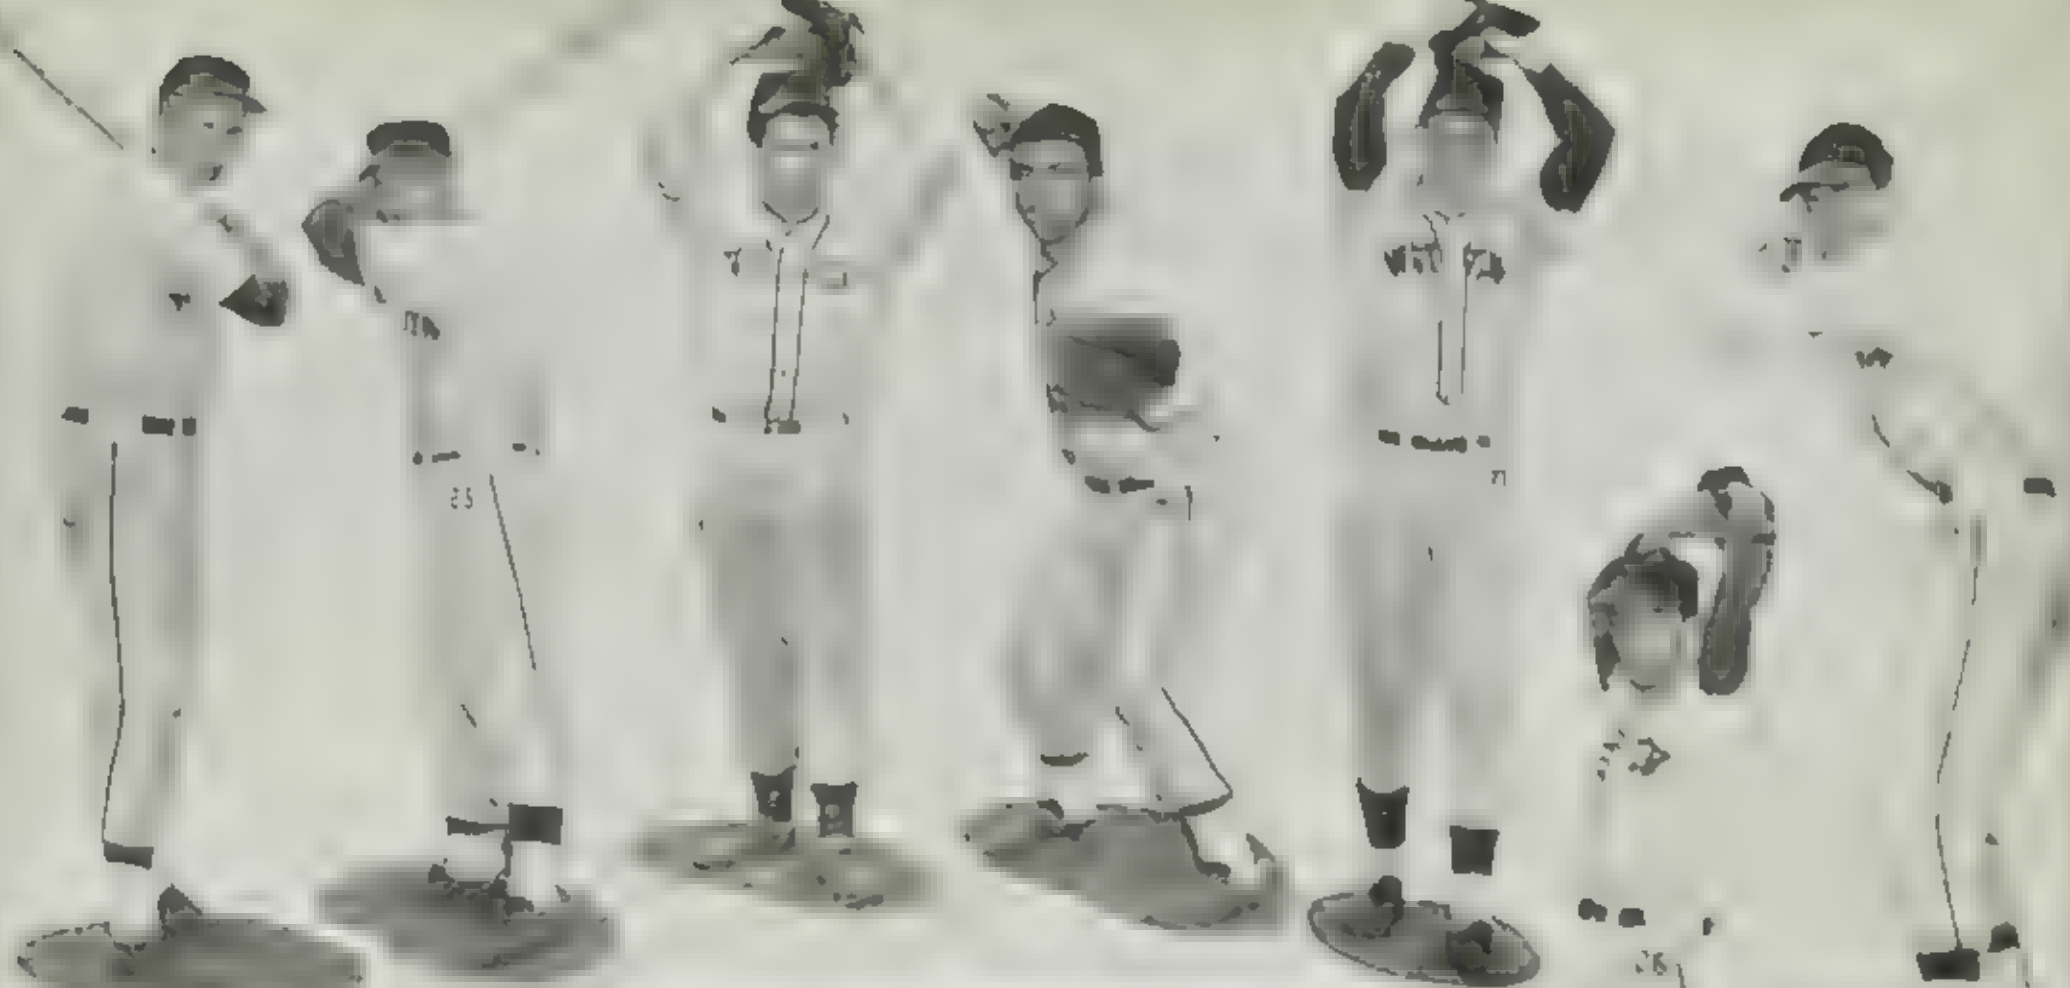

With only two lettermen back from 1954's experienced team, Coach Hartman was able to create a highly organized and spirited team. In spite of a few disappointing losses, the West View enthusiasm never died.

The remaining regulars from last year's squad were Don Hart, an outfielder; and Jerry Schomburger, a pitcher. Some of the newcomers who helped the team along were John Leech, first baseman; Phil Weber, catcher; John Selko, second baseman; Ed Luteran, third baseman; Jim Nussbaum, short stop; and Dick Schillinger and Andy Hruneni, outfielders. The pitching assignments were handled by Ed Abel, Jerry Schomburger, and Bill Lefe. The batting champion for the year was Don Hart who had an average of .400-plus, and who was chosen to play in the Optimists Club All-Star Game at Forbes Field.

West View was defeated four times in league play, these times by Springdale and West Deer, but they managed to turn the tables on North Allegheny to win two games, 9 to 4 and 12 to 1. In exhibition play the Indians suffered two losses to Shaler, a win and a loss to Bellevue, a win over Oliver, and an excellent win over Shady Side, 8 to 2, in which the Indians' six pitchers scored a no-hitter and everyone batted. This was later described by a sports writer as "something unique in the annals of high school baseball."

Congratulations to the team!

WRESTLING

West View is very proud of its wrestling team this year, and justly so, for it has been quite a few years since a West View wrestling squad could amass seven wins in a single season. With the coming of a new year, Mr. John F. Weixel, in his third year of coaching, was faced with the annual problem, few returning lettermen and a tough schedule ahead. In spite of these facts he was able to produce a highly talented and spirited team.

The season was initiated with a victory over West Allegheny to the tune of 24 to 17. The boys kept in the win column for most of the season. Some of their more notable victories were over Carnegie, Munhall and a 43 to 14 rout of Irwin.

There were several outstanding performers on the team this year. Some of these were Tony Richardson, who wrestled in the 121 pound class; Jim Duncan at 133; Roger Dunsmore, who weighed in at 145; Frank LaValle, in the 154 pound class; Ray Jamison and Bob Maines, who wrestled at 165 and 185 respectively.

Our heartiest congratulations to Coach Weixel and the team for their fine record, good sportsmanship and most of all for their spirit.

GOLF - 1955

As the ball was placed on the tee, another golf season started at West View under the instruction of Nelson V. Tiffany. Mr. Tiffany and his men of the putting greens narrowly missed clinching their sixth consecutive section title when they were defeated by Bridgeville in a playoff, nine and a half to six and a half.

There was only one holdover from last year's team, Frank Ransick who held down the number one position and was also medalist for the year with an 80.3 average. The other boys who comprised the team were: Seniors, Sam Zeno, Vic Vandewater, and Ralph Swierkosz; one junior, Jim Duncan, and two sophomores, Rod Kotchin and Lee Seybert. The team initiated the season at Highland Country Club with a win over North Allegheny and continued their winning ways to finish the season with a fine record of nine victories, only two defeats and one tie.

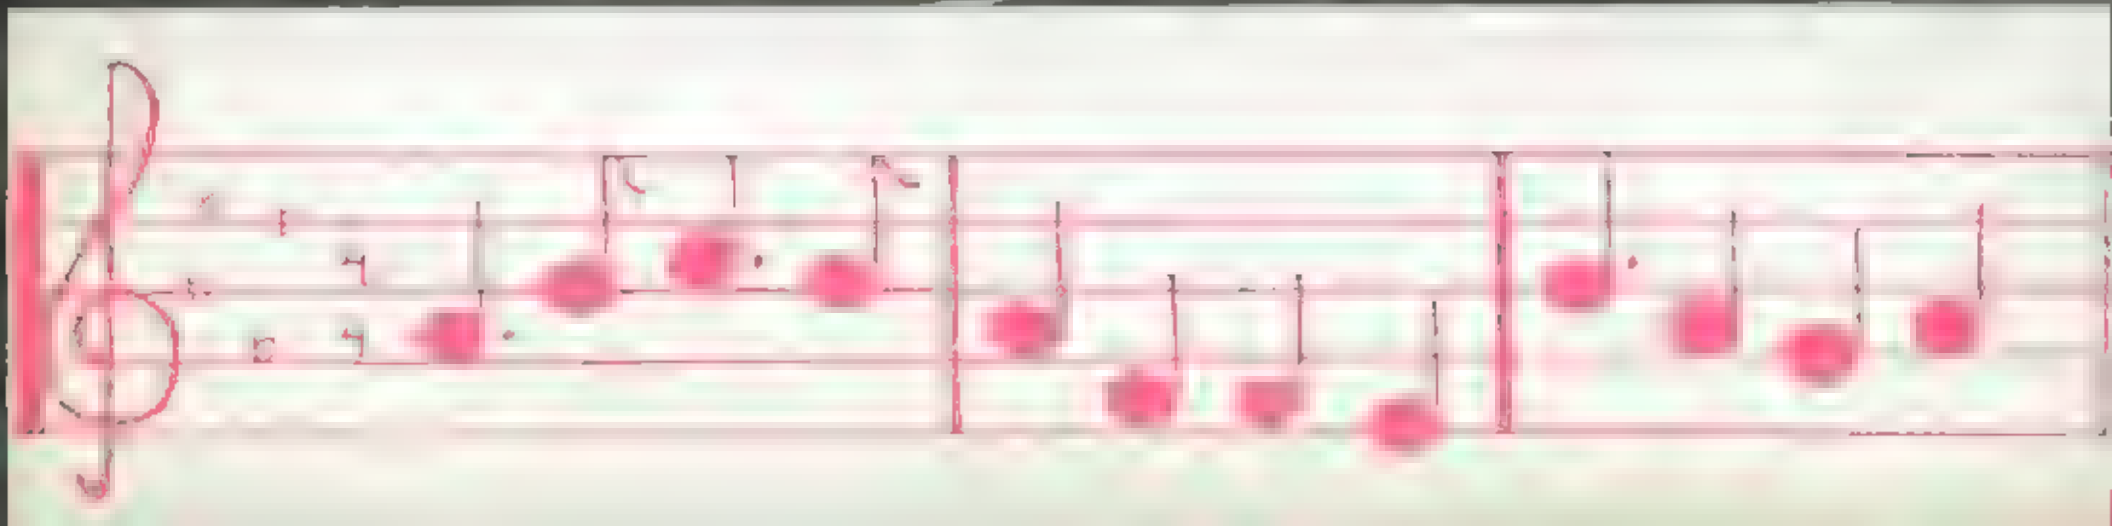

Congratulations to Mr. Tiffany and the team of '55 and best wishes to the team of '56.

MAY FESTIVAL

1956 May Queen

KAY NELSON

West View's traditional May Day was looked forward to with excitement this year as it has always been. In January, when seven senior girls were nominated, everyone gathered anxiously around their pictures posted in the hall, wondering who the three graces would be. When the final election unveiled their names, the months of suspense before May Day were begun.

At last the evening of Tuesday, May 1, 1956 arrived. Tension had mounted to its peak when the crowd gathered in anticipation in the auditorium. The jesters and trumpeters got the May Day Pageant off to an exciting start. The audience watched in admiration as the graceful court dancers walked to the stage with their escorts. In gowns of harmonizing pastels, the lovely attendants to the Queen—Doris Hacke, Barbara Jones, Betty Klaas, and Judy Pullion—were presented. As the time came for the three graces to appear, every eye was fixed on the doorway through which they would walk.

Applause greeted the Lady-in-Waiting, Anne Heister, as she marched up the aisle to take her place at one side of the Queen's throne. Next appeared the Maid of Honor, Bobbie Taylor, who gracefully took her place at the other side of the throne. Now at last the highlight of the evening had arrived. The suspense would be ended. Silence hovered over the auditorium as the doors were opened to present our beautiful May Queen of 1956, Kay Nelson. Thundering applause broke the silence of the tense audience as the Queen took her throne and was crowned by the retiring Queen, Sally Jo Mosca. The court attendants presented a gala program in the Queen's honor.

We, the Class of 1956, bow to our Queen and wish her happiness throughout her reign.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"I Love Lucy"

No one in West View had to turn on their television sets on November 16 and 17, 1954, to see Lucy and Ricky Ricardo going through some very hilarious antics. All they had to do was to go to the school auditorium to see the Junior Class production of "I Love Lucy."

Janet Moore and Mark Ihrig played Lucy and Ricky respectively. Ethel and Fred Mertz, the Ricardo's lovable neighbors, were played by Anne Heister and Gil Zwetsch. Kay Nelson was Peggy, a neighbor girl who got a crush on Ricky and really puts affairs in a fine state

The very shy Arthur, Peggy's boyfriend who gets a mad crush on Lucy, was played by Tony Richardson. Mr. Littlefield, the owner of the Tropicana, a nightclub where Ricky worked, and his wife were played by Bill Schick and Ginnie Campbell.

These eight people and the rest of the cast kept the three-act comedy of errors whirling through the evening. After the final curtain, congratulations were given to Miss Delp and the cast who provided a very hilarious and entertaining evening. The audience's applause showed that they, too, loved Lucy.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"The Remarkable Incident At Carson's Corners"

"The Remarkable Incident at Carson's Corners" was something excitingly different in the line of class plays. It involved the death of a high school boy, and the resulting trial put on by the students for their parents. The plot was intriguing and every one of the 26 characters played an important part in the building of the story. Mr. Kovalesky, the school janitor who was accused of murdering the boy, was played by Ralph Wagner, Janet Moore, Walter Blejwas, Dick Weinzetl, Ilene Dodson, Bob Hunt, and Anne Heister played the parts of students who staged the trial which eventually brought humiliation upon every member of the community. The seniors who played outstanding roles as parents were Arky Klappas, Mark Ihrig, Chuck Moll, Bill Roll, Gene Mayfield, and Jed Hutchison. The play was thoroughly enjoyed by all, and especially appreciated as something new in class plays. No scenery was used, and the participants in certain scenes were often called upon to play highly emotional roles. Mr. Craig, the director, is to be congratulated on his fine work in presenting such a fine performance.

JUNIOR ACTIVITY

"Holly Hop"

The first activity of the Junior Class, the "Holly Hop," was held at Tu-Decks, December 28, 1954. Music for dancing was supplied by the Trio Tones. Tu Decks was decorated in the holiday style, with mistletoe and holly adorning the walls. Everyone dressed in their Christmas best to enjoy themselves in an atmosphere of gaiety and fun. A late snack consisting of hamburgers, French fries and punch was served. The dancing and fun continued until 12:00 when everyone left for home, tired but happy, looking forward to more enjoyable times with their class.

SENIOR ACTIVITY

"Poverty Party"

Although the day, October 5, turned out to be very wet and cold for the Poverty Party at Rose Grove, everyone had a hilarious time. To start off the festivities there was a contest for the best-dressed male and female hobo. Bill Schick won the male prize and Mark Ithig unanimously walked off with the female prize. After a good supper of ham sandwiches, potato salad, and everything that goes with a picnic, there was dancing to records. The highlight of the evening was the pie-eating contest. Tom Durnell, Lou Stephany, and Ralph Wagner were the contestants, but in the general hilarity that followed, a winner was never determined. After the pie was cleaned up, the dancing continued for the rest of the evening.

All too soon the evening ended and all departed to wash blueberry stains out of their shirts and to add this event to their wonderful memories of West View High School.

JUNIOR PROM

The night of April 22, 1955 was a little cloudy, but in the hearts of the class of '56 there were millions of stars in the sky—it was the night of our Junior Prom

Artie Arnell was playing really smooth music to the delight of everyone and the huge mirrored sphere transformed Danceland into a scintillating hide out. The girls looked their loveliest in gowns of every shade and the fellows were truly handsome in their white dinner jackets and dark suits. In between dances, the exquisitely dressed couples went outside to try their skill at Goofy Golf. All too soon, the clock struck midnight, and with the playing of the Alma Mater, the Prom was over.

"Dancing In The Dark"

However, for many of us, the evening had only begun. At 12:30 the After Prom Party got off to a good start with a delicious lunch of barbeques, baked beans, potato salad, and a choice of soft drinks. With this new store of energy, many played golf once more or just stayed indoors and danced to records. A dance contest was held and Nancy Jones and Adolfo Marche walked off with the trophy. The Wright Brothers and the Del Montico Quartet provided excellent entertainment for the happy but sleepy group. Before we knew it, the night was dying and the sun started its slow journey across the sky. Breakfast, which consisted of doughnuts and cocoa, was served at five o'clock. We certainly didn't look as glamorous as when we arrived, but we certainly were happier for all the fun we had had at our memorable Junior Prom.

SENIOR DINNER DANCE

At the Gateway Plaza on February 25, we seniors happily gathered for our Senior Dinner Dance, the first in the chain of events before our graduation. At 6:30 everyone sat down to a delicious roast turkey dinner, made pleasantly complete by chocolate chiffon pie for dessert.

With contented appetites, we focused our attention on our class president, Mark Ihrig, who acted as Master of Ceremonies for the evening. He presented Miss Delp and Mr. Gay, our wonderful class sponsors, who brought back enjoyable memories of high school experiences and praised the progress which we had made. Mark read very nice letters from Dr. Rice and Mr. Luke, who were with us in their thoughts even though they were unable to attend the dinner. The Girls Ensemble entertained us with two love y numbers and then led us in the singing of our Alma Mater.

As Billy LeRoy's Orchestra began to play, couples turned to the dance floor for more hours of music and fun. When at twelve o'clock the music stopped and our Senior Dinner Dance was over, most of us wished that we could still have the gala event to look forward to instead of just having it as a pleasant memory of the past

SHUFFLE SHOP

Shuffle Shop! That can mean only one thing—a Saturday night packed with lots of fun and good times while dancing to the latest "pop" hits, or better still, to the music of the famed Swing Band, which is led by Jared Meyer.

This year's secretary of Shuffle Shop, Barbara Jones, and her efficient Shuffle Shop committee proved to be a good and well organized team. On Saturday afternoons, the committee went about decorating the gym, while Barbara, in addition to directing her committee, was given a new responsibility—that of handling the money. With the co-operation of Mr. E. H. Meyer, the sponsor in co-ordination with the P.T.A., our secretary did a wonderful job.

This year as last, the clubs and activities of West View took turns in sponsoring the dances which were usually very novel. This created keen competition as to which club or activities would receive the prize at the end of the year for having the most popular dance.

A system was used for selling Shuffle Shop membership cards in which the holders of the cards were admitted to the dances at a reduced price. The list of Shuffle Shop members grew by leaps and bounds.

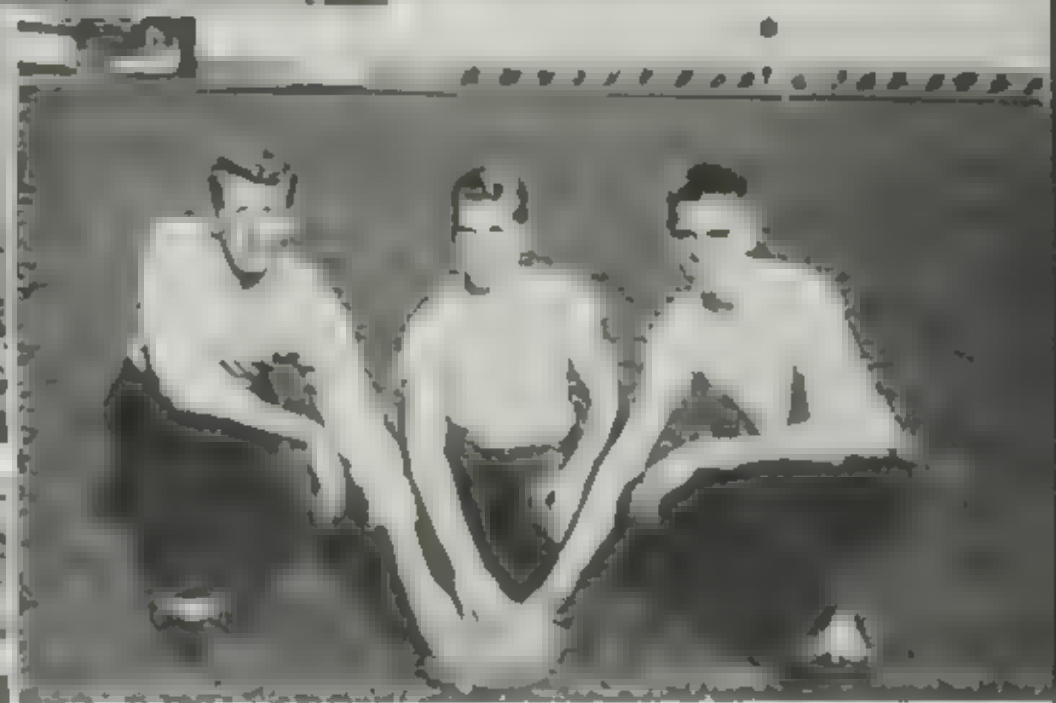

"Tenderly"

This season began with a football dance, followed by a dance dedicated to the welcoming of the new sophomores to West View. Other special dances to follow were the Basketball Dances, sponsored by the Cheerleaders, "Winter Wonderland," sponsored by the West Wind, "Lullaby of Musicland," sponsored by the band, "Holiday in Hawaii," sponsored by the Westvian, "Cupid's Caper," sponsored by the Sophomore Class, "Crystal Ball," sponsored by the Pep Club, "Memories are Made of This," sponsored by Shuffle Shop itself, "Berserk Ball the II," sponsored by the Hi-Y, and many others. Two of the favorite dances were when Barry Kaye held the Christmas Dance and when Jay Michael appeared at Shuffle Shop for the St. Patrick's Day Dance. Other clubs which also participated in sponsoring Shuffle Shop were: the Senior Class, the Junior Class, the Bowling Club, the Chorus, and the F.H.A. On May 26, the Farewell Dance was held as a tribute to the seniors.

At the end of the year it was agreed that Shuffle Shop had filled the year with some rollicking Saturday nights and gay times for all.

ALMA MATER

Nestled snug'mid Wooded hill Tops Shrined in ev-ery heart

Our be-lov-ed Al-ma ma-ter West-View Fair Thou Art

Chorus

Al-ma Ma-ter We-Thy chil-dren Tri-bute Bring to thee

Hail To Thee our Dear old West View Hail Thy Mem-o-ry

SECOND VERSE:

Voices gay, of youth and maiden,
Echo 'round thy halls.
Memories tender cling forever
To thy chambered walls.

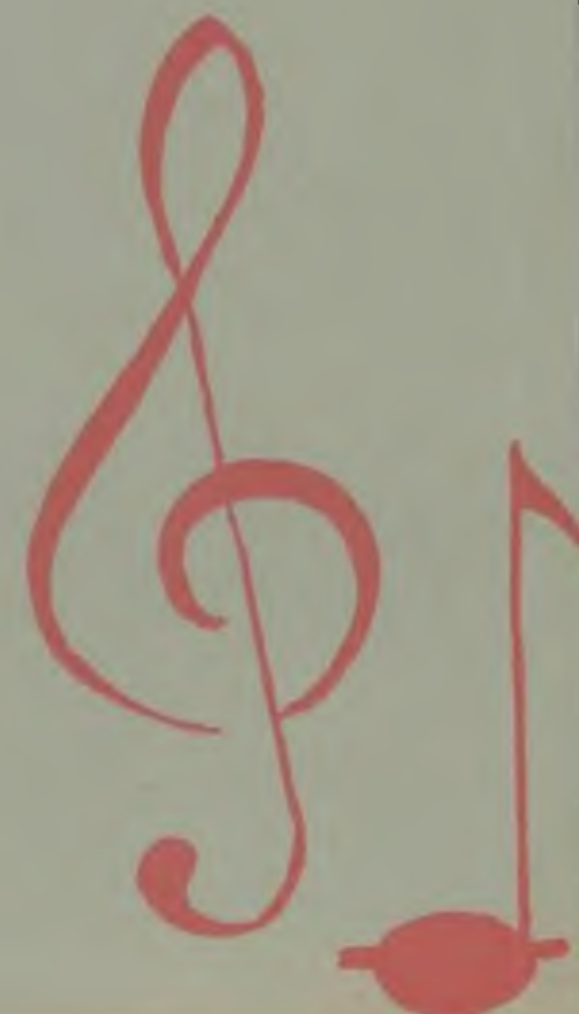

CHORUS:

Alma Mater, we thy children
Tribute bring to thee.
Hail to thee, our dear old West View.
Hail thy memory.

Dear Lynn

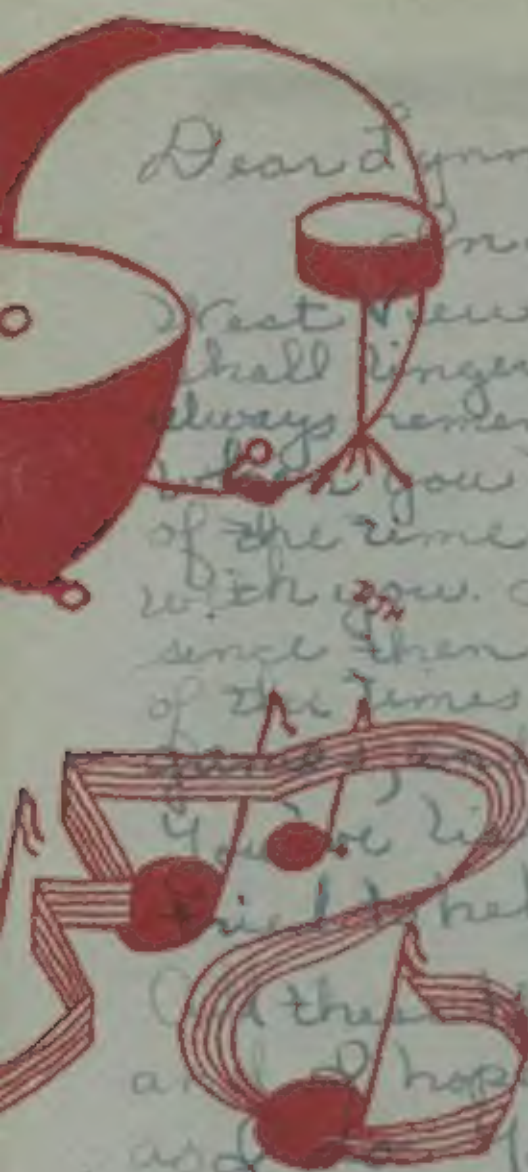

well, right year
we'll be seniors &
I still can't believe it.
Good luck, you have the kind of personality that succeed in everything remember me.

(Revised)

Dear Lynn,

Another year we'll graduate and rest will be behind us but our memories shall linger on. It is my hope that you will always remember the good times we've had together when you look back. As I look back I think of the time you called + asked to spend a few days with you. I really enjoyed that visit + every visit since then has been wonderful. I like to think of the times you've stayed at my house, the dances, games and other activities we've done together.
You've listened to my troubles and always tried to help (and) even when they sounded silly.
I think of these things and more and I always remember
and I hope you feel the same way about them.
And now you've been a wonderful friend + next year and all the years to come that we continue to be friends. I wish you all the luck in the future and I know you will be a big success.
What ever you do, always stay as true as you are now + never forget who you are always,
M.B.
